

Reg. No. :

FY-01

Name :

FIRST YEAR HIGHER SECONDARY EXAMINATION, MARCH 2020

Part – I

Time : 2½ Hours

ENGLISH

Cool-off time : 15 Minutes

Maximum : 80 Scores

General Instructions to Candidates :

- There is a 'Cool-off time' of 15 minutes in addition to the writing time.
- Use the 'Cool-off time' to get familiar with questions and to plan your answers.
- Read questions carefully before answering.
- Write answer to the specific number of questions as instructed.
- Electronic devices are not allowed in the examination hall.

(Questions 1 – 4 : Answer the questions as directed)

~~(4 × 1 = 4)~~

Read the excerpt from 'The Serang of Ranaganji' and answer the questions that follow.

"How shall I describe the solace which flowed towards me from him as he stood there in meditation, with his long arms folded on his bare chest, motionless as a statue? When a sick man groaned faintly, he would step forward, without sound, to succour him."

1. What makes the narrator feel solaced ?
2. What is the figure of speech used in the expression 'motionless as a statue' ?
3. Pick out two expressions that describe the physical features of the character in the narrative.
4. Find out the word in the passage which means 'give assistance or aid to'.

(Questions 5 – 9 : Rewrite as directed.)

Use appropriate forms of the words given in the brackets to fill in the blanks.

5. Hawking commented in his customary style, 'If I _____ (get) a first, I shall go to Cambridge'. (1)

6. Ivan Ivanich said to his brother, "If I were young, I _____ (follow) my dreams as you did". (1)

7. Complete the following sentences to know how Gupta would report his conversation with Maggie.

Gupta asked, "What is it, Maggie?"

Maggie replied, "Come into the sitting room and I will tell you."

I asked Maggie

Maggie replied

(2)

8. Complete the following passage with suitable words selected from those given in the box. (2)

Although	But	Nevertheless
----------	-----	--------------

Hawking joined University College, his father's college and the oldest at Oxford. _____ (a) _____, for about a year and a half, he was lonely and bored. _____ (b) _____ halfway through his second year, he began enjoying Oxford.

9. Identify the errors and edit appropriately.

Hawking was confident that he can get through successfully. But he ended up disastrously in the borderline between a first and a second. (2)

(Questions 10 – 13) : Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow :

(4 × 1 = 4)

Persuasion is the art of convincing someone to agree with your point of view. According to the ancient Greek philosopher Aristotle, there are three basic tools of persuasion : ethos, pathos and logos.

Ethos is a speaker's way of convincing the audience that he/she is a credible source. Pathos is the speaker's way of connecting with an audience's emotions. Logos is the use of facts, information, statistics, or other evidence to make his/her argument more convincing.

Although ethos, pathos and logos – all have their strength, they are often most effective when they are used together. Indeed, most speakers use a combination of ethos, pathos and logos to persuade their audience.

10. Find out the word from the passage which means 'able to be believed'.

11. According to the passage, the most effective tool of persuasion is _____.

12. Define persuasion.

13. Give a suitable title to the passage.

(Questions 14-16) : Answer all questions. Each carries 2 scores.

(3 × 2 = 6)

14. "Was there ever a scene so awfully grand?" What was the awfully grand scene that the narrator mentions in the poem 'The Wreck of the Titanic'?

15. 'My objection to it is that it stops the brain.' Max Beerbohm commented like this about 'walking for walking's sake'. What made him say so?

16. What does Rudyard Kipling say about one's attitude to 'success and failure' in his poem 'If'?

(Questions 17 – 18) : Answer in two or three sentences. Each carries 3 scores.

(2 × 3 = 6)

17. You have a differently abled friend like Greta. You felt empathetic to him/her, after having read the story 'Conceptual Fruit'.

You think that computer knowledge can help him/her in future. So, you decide to send him/her a text message to communicate this idea. Draft the text message.

18. 'Country life has its advantages,' says Nicholai in the story 'Gooseberries'. Mention the advantages of life in a country side.

(Questions 19-23) : Answer any 3 questions in about 80 words. Each carries 4 scores.

(3 × 4 = 12)

19. H.W. Longfellow picturises the beauty of hills and valleys bathed in the glorious light of sun in his poem, 'Sunrise on the Hills'. Describe the beauty of the hills and valleys as presented in the poem.

20. Prepare a profile of Kamala Surayya, an Indian English poet and Malayalam author, based on the given hints.

Kamala Surayya (31st March 1934 – 31st May 2009)

Pet name : Amy

Other name : Madhavikutty

Married name : Kamala Das

Born at : Punnayurkulam

Notable works : My Story

Summer in Calcutta.

Awards : Sahitya Academy Award,

Ezhuthachan Puraskaram,

Muttathu Varkey Award,

Vayalar Award.

Asan World Prize.

21. Mr. Gupta in the story 'The Price of Flowers' is a typical representative of Indians who can accommodate all others regardless of their caste and financial status. What other qualities do you notice in him ?

Attempt a character appraisal of Mr. Gupta.

22. Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam exhorts the youth to be unique. How can you be unique when everyone wants you to follow others ? Write about your vision.

23. Internet is the greatest gift of technology as it helps to get the world opened up at our finger tips. But today, even school children are misled by cyberspace. In order to sensitise the students about the pros and cons of cyberspace, your school has decided to conduct a debate on the topic 'Internet is the greatest villain of the 21st century'.

Draft four points in support of the topic.

(Questions 24 – 29) : Answer any 4 questions in about 120 words. Each carries 6 scores.

(4 × 6 = 24)

24. Think of a place you have recently visited, and prepare a travel essay based on your experiences.

[Hints : Physical features – culture – life style – educational value – practical problems – personal impressions.]

25. 'Failure is fatal : it is the courage to continue that counts,' says Winston Churchill. Failure is indeed a stepping stone to success. The young seagull's story teaches us this. Prepare a write-up highlighting this view, based on your reading of the story 'His First Flight'.

26. A.J. Cronin, the physician of the ship Ranaganji was extremely impressed by the service of Hasan. So, he decided to recommend him for a promotion. He plans to send an e-mail to the Director of the shipping company explaining his dedication and selfless service. Draft the e-mail for him.

27. You are the reporter of a local television channel. You are asked to be present at Belgium to give live report of the balloon landing. Draft the live report.

[Hints : time of descent – response of animals and the people – appearance of the balloon – excitement of the passengers]

28. Technology is a blessing so long as it is man's slave. Unfortunately, today's young generation is too much addicted to technology. So it becomes their master. It's high time we sensitise the young generation about the negative impact of technology. Write a letter to the editor to communicate your views to the public.

[Hints : addiction – time consuming – degeneration of values – imitate violence]

29. In the anecdote The Sacred Turtles of Kadavu, the fishermen who attacked the women continued their journey as if nothing happened. But the victims lost their identity. Most often, the same happens in the present day society too. Women who are molested lose their identity and are bound to live in seclusion, whereas the culprits live in dignity. Create a blog about this social injustice.

(Questions 30 – 33) : Answer any 2 questions in about 180 words. Each carries 8 scores.

(2 × 8 = 16)

30. The recent occurrences of flood and landslides in our state give us a warning that Kerala is vulnerable to disasters. It is a reality that we cannot prevent disasters, but we can mitigate their impact by proper management.

Prepare an essay on the 'Role of Local Communities in Disaster Management'.

[Hints : educate to manage – rescue measures – escape techniques – preventive measures – planning – follow rules and regulations.]

31. In connection with the 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, an elocution competition is being conducted for Higher Secondary Students.

Prepare a speech about 'Mahatma Gandhi and his thoughts' to be delivered there.

[Hints : Simplicity – strength of personality – power of thoughts – dreams about India]

32. World Health Organisation opines that "Good Health is a state of complete physical, social and mental well being, and not the absence of diseases." The unit 'Harmony of Life' emphasises this. Based on your study of the unit, prepare an article for your school magazine about 'Holistic Concept of Health'.

[Hints : Pursuing one's dreams – self-satisfaction – good sleep – physical exercise – healthy food – good social relationship]

33. Read the following poem and prepare an appreciation :

Death is Here and Death is There.

— Percy Bysshe Shelley.

Death is here and death is there,
Death is busy everywhere,
All around, within, beneath,
Above is death – and we are death.

Death has set his mark and seal
On all we are and we feel,
On all we know and all we fear,

First our pleasures die – and then
Our hopes, and then our fears – and
When
These are dead, the debt is due,
Dust claims dust – and we die too.

All things that we love and cherish,
Like ourselves must fade and perish;
Such is our rude mortal lot –
Love itself would, did they not.