ENGLISH

- ◆ There is a cool off time of 15 minutes. It is for reading the question paper.
- ◆ Attempt ANY FIVE Activities.

Activity I – Reading comprehension - poem

Read the poem carefully and answer to the following questions:-

She knelt along the bed side
To help me say my prayers
She stayed one step behind me
As she helped me climb the stairs

She helped me to read the recipe
When I baked my first dessert
And helped me sew a button
On my favourite woven shirt

The lessons of a life time
Were easy ones to bare
With helping hand to guide me
My mom was always there.

- 1) Pick out two pairs of rhyming words from the poem.
- 2) What do you mean by the expression "The lessons of a life time"?
- 3) What are the speaker's sweet memories about his mother?
- 4) Give a suitable title to the poem?

Activity II – Thoughts

Read the passage taken from the story "A glass of milk".

Years later, that woman became old and critically ill with an unknown disease. The local doctors were baffled. They finally sent her to the big city, where they called in specialists to study her rare disease. Dr. Howard Kelly was called in for the consultation. When he realised her and the town she came from, a strange light filled his eyes. Dressed in his doctors gown he went in to see her.

What would be the thoughts of Dr. Howard Kelly when he saw the woman?

Activity III – Signboard

Dr. Howard Kelly put many signboards in his hospital.

Prepare two sign boards.

Activity IV – Newspaper report

“Don’t be panic, Aman. I am here to help you.” Radha said soothingly. “Just hold my waist with one hand and try to paddle slowly with your feet.” ‘I will carry you with me.’”

You remember how Radha saved Aman from the river current. This incident appeared in the newspaper next day.

How would be the news report?

Activity V – Description
